

Job Description: Episcopal Retreat & Conference Center, Executive Director, Salt Lake City Utah

The Episcopal Diocese of Utah is looking for an Executive Director to elevate the ERCC as a premier destination for cultivating discipleship and for training practitioners and agents of spiritual growth, peace, justice, and healing.

The Executive Director needs to have entrepreneurial vision and acumen to bring this well established and respected center into this new era of mission focused on Becoming Beloved Community, a committed vision set forth by the diocese. This position will require community building, creativity skills, excellent interpersonal and management abilities, and personal values that align with those of the Episcopal Church. If you are a person who loves to make a difference, works hard for a purpose, and wants to lead a team dedicated to the ministry of hospitality, we invite your inquiry of interest.
